Hello!

It is my pleasure to write a letter of recommendation for Kelly Carter.

We met Kelly when we were brand new parents looking for a fulltime nanny to care for our 3-month old daughter when I returned to work. Hiring her was the best decision we could have made for our family, as she has become an integral part of our now two-year-old daughter's upbringing.

Kelly is a tremendously capable child care provider who brings passion and professionalism to work every day. We were looking for the right person who would become part of our parenting team and she has not only done that, but also become a special part of our family.

At every stage in our daughter's development, Kelly brings an experienced approach to helping her grow and learn. She is respectful of our personal philosophies and complements them well, often offering us helpful insight from her own experience and research. She is nurturing and gentle, but reasonably firm and consistent when required – not to mention amazingly patient.

She is responsible for all of our daughter's day-to-day activities, from meal-planning to socialization, cognitive skills, and more. Kelly is also very organized and always brings new ideas for adventures inside and outside the home, constantly keeping us closely apprised with updates and photos of their days together. It brings me the biggest joy to see all the fun our daughter is having, engaging in all sorts of new adventures.

Another one of Kelly's great strengths is her communication with us, which is always thorough, respectful and caring – a huge plus for my husband and I who both own small businesses and manage many employees, and recognize that as a critical trait. She also regularly goes above and beyond her responsibilities to make sure our daughter's needs are met, our house is tidy, and we are all on the same page.

Most importantly, our daughter adores her. She cheers when she sees Kelly's car pull up, and constantly talks about her when she's not here. Their bond is truly special. On a personal note, we also adore Kelly, and have spent holidays and family vacations together, enjoying every moment.

Kelly is one in a million and any family is lucky to have her! I'm always happy to share more if you'd like to contact me directly.

Best,
